

BACK TO THE BRICKS[®]

General Rules and Regulations for Exhibiting and Exhibit Requirements:

This is a Concours quality event and is structured as such.

Considering the significant financial awards available at the Back to the Bricks Chrome and Ice event, the following conditions are being implemented.

All vehicles selected to participate in the event will be selected by the event committee. This is an Invitation Only show.

All vehicles will be placed in classes as determined by the event committee.

If your vehicle is selected you will be notified of your inclusion and the class in which you have been placed.

All vehicles must be capable of starting, running and move under their own power. One vehicle per owner will be allowed. Bring your registration as each vehicle will be checked.

All booth arrangements shall conform in all respects to the dimensions and height requirements as specified by event committee. Booth size cannot exceed the space allotted to you by the committee. Exhibits shall be arranged so as not to obstruct the general view or access to surrounding displays, aisles, emergency exits or public space within the exhibit facilities.

Judging

In an effort to be completely impartial, the judges will be completely independent of any connection with Back to the Bricks. Their decision will be final. There will be No appeal. Your vehicle shall be judged in five areas: body/paint, interior, engine, undercarriage, overall detail, cleanliness and safety.

Exhibit Space Allocation and Requirements:

To be completely impartial the placement of vehicles on the show floor will be as follows.

All exhibit spaces shall be 20 feet deep. Some exhibit spaces are 10 feet wide and some are 15 feet wide.

Your placement shall be randomly determined as follows.

All vehicles identification will be placed in a box.

All exhibit spaces will be placed in a box.

The event committee will pull a vehicle from one box and an exhibit space from the other box. Where you are placed is completely random and by chance. Someone will be happy and some will not. The placement is impartial and final.

You will be notified of your acceptance for participation, your booth location along with a layout of the exhibit floor and a commitment form. It is at this point you must confirm weather you are going to participate or not and return the signed statement to us.

Your allocated space is for that space only. In order to make the competition as far as possible, your vehicle is to be displayed without any supporting display material. You will be provided a Vehicle Information display board based on the information you provided on the Commitment Form. This board is the only vehicle information that can be displayed. Coolers, cleaning materials or loose items must be kept out of sight and stored in your vehicle or out of the exhibit area. You will be parking on Astro turf. Low profile indoor car exhibit barriers will be provided as well as a drip pan. No stanchions will be necessary or allowed. Seating within the exhibit space is not allowed. There is ample seating and eating areas in the arena.

Conduct:

Exhibitors should realize they are on display, along with their vehicles. All exhibitors must adhere to a reasonable standard of dress and conduct; clean, presentable attire is required. All vehicles and displays should be presented in good taste. No obscene or suggestive items will be allowed. The event committee shall be the sole arbiter of the Exhibitors conduct. Any Exhibitor determined to be in violation of this paragraph shall be required to remove him/herself and him/her vehicle from the show forthwith and without delay if the Committee so instructs

Selling Restrictions:

No sales or distribution of merchandise, i.e. pictures, T-shirts, programs, calendars, comic books, patches, emblems, etc. Exhibitors must honor all building concession rights, the building management has the final say and the show management and exhibitor must accept their decision.

Property Damage:

Nothing shall be tacked, nailed, screwed or otherwise attached to drapes, columns, walls, floors or other parts of the building or furniture.

Security:

Show management provides 24 hour guard service for surveillance of the premises; however, each Exhibitor shall be solely responsible for their own property. It is highly recommended that product, not secured, be removed when the display is not occupied. The Back to the Bricks, Inc. Committee disclaims any and all responsibility for any causality loss sustained by any Exhibitor as a direct or proximate result of any act or commission by any third party.

Labor:

All labor for the installation and removal of exhibitor's display is the responsibility of the exhibitor. Exhibitor understands that if they not be able to perform the labor required for their display they will be solely responsible for payment of any labor required to install or remove display.

Demonstrations & Merchandise:

No demonstrations or solicitations shall be permitted within the show area or the exhibitor's assigned space. Distribution of any printed matter, samples or other articles are not allowed within the show area or the exhibitor's assigned space. Exhibitors shall not have or operate any display that is the source of objectionable, or interfering with surrounding displays, including signs. Lights, volume of noise, and costuming of exhibit personal. Vehicles will not be allowed to start at any time except during move in and move out. No spinning of tire are allowed at any time. The event committee has the final authority.

Show Hours:

Exhibitors will be allowed into the building one hour prior to opening each day. Always check with the event committee to be sure of schedule opening time each day. The hours differ Friday and Saturday.

Move-In:

You will receive information on the staged inbound schedule based on your location on the floor. There is only one door in the arena large enough to accommodate cars and trailers, thus the scheduled inbound staging. You can unload outside and drive or push you vehicle in or pull you trailer inside. There is room for only one trailer at a time. You must enter and unload your vehicle immediately and remove your trailer from the arena. There will be a location provided to park all trailers. Your vehicle may be pushed to you exhibit space or driven, your choice, but if it is not driven you many required to start and make you vehicle move under its own power. All booths (Exhibitors) must be at the show venue during the scheduled move-in times and show hours

Move-Out:

Move-Out will begin only after the advertized close of the show and after trophy presentation has been completed on Saturday. There is absolutely no teardown or vehicle removal until that time. Vehicles can be pushed or driven out of the arena only after the aisles are cleared of pedestrians and the aisle covering is removed. Trailers can be pulled into the arena one at a time in the order that they are lined up outside the arena.

All exhibitors must be cleared from the building facilities Sunday 5:00 PM. unless weather prohibits.

Sub-Contracting Space:

Absolutely no sub-contracting of exhibit space is permitted.

Rubbish:

Please keep your booth area neat and free of rubbish. Rubbish should be put in rubbish containers or placed into the aisle before leaving each night.

Compliance:

Exhibitor assumes all responsibilities for compliance with all pertinent ordinances, regulations and codes of duty, authorized local, state and federal governing bodies concerning fire, safety, health, together with the rules and regulations of the operators and owners of the property wherein the show is held.

Live Animals:

No animals of any kind are permitted with the exception of service animals.

Liability:

Neither Back to the Bricks nor Its divisions, partners, affiliates, their officers, agents, employees, their families, and other representatives shall be held liable for, and the same are hereby released from accountability for any damages, loss, harm or injury to the person (s) or property of the applicant or any of the officers, agents, employees, their families, and other representatives, resulting from theft, fire, water, accident, or any other cause.
